An employment center, providing a place to bring employer and employee in touch with one another. 11. The establishment of a branch of the health board in the line of a medical advisor for the community to look after matters pertaining to the general health. 12. A place for all the people of the community to become acquainted. A precursor of the social center began in 1888 in New York City, in the form of free lecture courses, and has extended to about 170 schools and halls. Dr. Henry M. Leipziger, supervisor of the public lectures, occupies in this relation a position co-ordinate with the office of superintendents of schools. The main idea of the lecture course is instruction, and the lectures cover all the great divisions of human knowledge upon such subjects as sanitation, health, civics, natural science, descriptive geography, art, music, literature, etc. They have proven...
